

House Resolution No. 2608

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have dedicated an exceptional amount of time and energy to improving quality of life in local communities and neighborhoods through leadership with a wide variety of service venues; and

Whereas, Heather Little of Kansas City, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction for her work as an AmeriCorps Jumpstart coach, trainer, observer, and manager who has been responsible for planning and implementing effective Jumpstart sessions and for facilitating a team of eleven University of Missouri-Kansas City students at a local preschool and who is characterized by dedication to the children, families, team members, and community with which she works; and

Whereas, on April 25, 2007, Heather Little will enhance her already impressive record of accomplishment when she is presented with a Service Award from the Missouri Community Service Commission at the Missouri Service Day celebration that will be held in the Carnahan Memorial Gardens of Jefferson City; and

Whereas, Heather Little's work embodies the highest standards of conduct and performance and meets the lofty vision of the Missouri Community Service Commission to strengthen Missouri communities through volunteerism and service by individuals who come together with the goal of improving and enriching the lives of others; and

Whereas, the Missouri Community Service Commission is comprised of fifteen to twenty-five governor-appointed commissioners with expertise in the areas of community service and volunteerism; and

Whereas, Missouri Community Service Commission commissioners and staff work together to encourage all Missourians to give of themselves to make Missouri a better place to live for all of its residents; and

Whereas, the Missouri Community Service Commission has taken as a goal for the upcoming year to increase the number of volunteers to make an even greater impact throughout the state:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Heather Little for a Service Award from the Missouri Community Service Commission and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Heather Little of Kansas City, Missouri.
